Circular Memorandum No. GSO. 1452.

Bombay 1, 15th November 1952.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

Under orders contained in Government Circular Memorandum, Health and Local Government Department, No. S. 168, dated the 11th August 1947, local purchase is authorized of the articles of stationery required for use by a newly created office during the first year. As it is necessary that the expenditure incurred on this account should be limited to the minimum, the Heads of the newly created offices are requested to see that such expenditure does not exceed Rs. 20 per officer and/or clerk for whom the stationery is required. In case the office in question is supplied with a typewriter, the additional expenditure on account of the purchase of typewriter paper, carbon paper and typewriter ribbons should not exceed Rs. 30 per machine. The total expenditure which is debitable to the grants of the office concerned should, however, not exceed the available contingent grant.
